

(This is the seventh in a series of weekly articles written by prominent Palm Springs residents for The Desert Sun. This series will bring to the readers of this newspaper throughout the season the worthwhile viewpoints and ideas of prominent villagers on various subjects of local interest. The writer in each case chooses his own subject, and the column that week is his own to do with as he sees fit. The column this week belongs to Albert R. Hoffman, judge of the Palm Springs City Court and justice of the peace of the Palm Springs Township.)

The City Court of the City of Palm Springs is a young institution, scarcely out of its swaddling clothes, and as we build and mould and rear it now in its formative days, so can we hope it will be and remain in the years to come.

It is a grave responsibility that we recognize, and it has been and always will be our earnest and sincere endeavor so to conduct the Court and its proceedings, in strict accordance with law and in the spirit of its founding, that it will command the respect and trust not only of you, our own people, but also of those, not of our city, who come before it, either as parties or as advocates. We hope to beget and instill in each and every one the confident feeling and trust that there is here at hand a fair and impartial tribunal, where justice, tempered with mercy to fit the occasion, will be administered, without respect to persons, free from outside influences, and without the slightest taint of bias or prejudice.

The Court came into existence with the incorporation of the city; and by the appointment of, and at the will of, the City Council, the judge thereof holds his office.

The Court has been constituted wisely, with the end in view of opening the doors of justice at your home, without the necessity and inconvenience of traveling afar; to afford you, the people of the city, an inexpensive and speedy remedy at law for minor grievances; and to render substantial aid in the prevention and punishment of crime.

These are important factors in our community life, and to me the appointment came as a distinct opportunity to manifest a constant thanksgiving to Palm Springs.

Palm Springs has been good to me; it kept me alive when I was not expected to live, and my debt of gratitude can never be fully repaid. A training in the law and a deep reverence for its forms, and whatever I may have of experience, knowledge, talent and ability, I bring to the office in the humble hope that possibly thereby the building up of the fundamental purposes of the Court will be laid on firm foundations.

There is a sympathy in the Court for every litigant, and its greatest repugnance is to impose the harsh impact of a judgment. Often a friendly and timely suggestion has resulted in an amicable immediate settlement, or in a mutually satisfactory arrangement.

Zoning Hearing; Council Meeting Wed. Morning

Next Wednesday morning, Nov. 15, the final hearing before the city council on the proposed new zoning ordinance will be held at 10 o'clock in the council chambers at 480 North Palm Canyon Drive.

This will probably be the last opportunity for owners of property within the city limits of Palm Springs to appear before the city council to discuss their zoning problems as they would be affected by this new ordinance. All property owners who think that they may have zoning problems have been urged by the city to appear at the hearing on Nov. 15 to explain their situations to the council.

Several public hearings have been held on this proposed ordinance, both before the planning commission and the council.

COUNCIL MEETING

A meeting of the city council will be held prior to the zoning hearing. The council meeting will start at 9:00 a. m.

The proposed sign ordinance, which would govern the types, installations, uses, etc., of signs within the city, will probably be introduced at this meeting. The planning commission has been working with the Chamber of Commerce in drafting this ordinance.

School District Division

—Sketch by John Porter Clark.

Above is graphically illustrated by Architect John Porter Clark the proposed division of the Banning Union High School District upon which the residents of Palm Springs will vote next Tuesday, Nov. 14. The sketch shows outlined in black the entire present district, which is composed of the Desert, Edom, Cabazon and Banning elementary school districts. The dotted line passing north and south through the district just east of Whitewater indicates where it is proposed to divide the district. The Palm Springs Union High School District would extend west to a point 1½ miles east of the Palm Springs Station. Although the Palm Springs district seems larger, it must be remembered that the long projection south of Cathedral City is in the Santa Rosa mountains and has no population.

The village voted against "30 Thursday" 870 to 291. The "At-

Sheriff Biscailuz Recovering from Operation Here

A prominent guest in the village at this time is Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz of Los Angeles county, who, with Mrs. Biscailuz and daughter, Mrs. Jean Mohr, is a guest at The Desert Inn.

Sheriff Biscailuz stated yesterday that he is not in Palm Springs on official business. He and his family arrived here Wednesday, and the famous sheriff is now recuperating here from a recent operation. When he came to Palm Springs this week, it was the first time that he had been out since his operation. He had not even been back to his office.

Sheriff Biscailuz is reportedly greatly enjoying the warm desert sun as he convalesces. He will return to the city some time Monday.

Biscailuz will return to Palm Springs again on Dec. 7 to attend the annual meeting here of the Riverside County Peace Officers Association.

kinson Oil Control" measure, Proposition No. 5, was voted down here by only a small majority.

Famous Girl Softballers Play Here Sunday

The whole village will trek to the Palm Springs Field Club this Sunday afternoon, Nov. 12, to witness a "battle of the sexes," when the famed Marshall-Clampett DeSoto girls' softball team from Los Angeles locks horns with Milt Hicks' Palm Springs Builders Supply "Lumberjacks" nine. Game time is 2:30 p. m.

The Amazons from the big city are a hard-hitting, smart aggregation of softballers with a wealth of experience behind them.

Twenty-nine were present at the first meeting of the organization last night, which saw Morris F. Richardson elected first president. Other officers elected were Dr. Henry S. Reid, vice-president; Fred Ingram, secretary; Ray Sorum, sergeant-at-arms.

The meeting was in progress from 6:30 to 10:00 p. m. in the private dining room at the Oasis. Every member present gave a five-minute autobiography.

The Toastmasters Club is limited to 30 members and will hold a dinner meeting on Tuesday night of each week at the Oasis Hotel.

Palm Springs to Vote On Separation from Banning Union High School District

CITY WINS CASE AGAINST HOLUBAR

The City of Palm Springs and its promising young attorney, Roy Colegate, enjoyed an important court victory last week when on Friday, Nov. 3, the Superior Court of Riverside county affirmed the decision handed down in the local city court on November 29, 1938, and held that Walter L. Holubar was guilty of constructing a building without complying with the city building code.

Holubar was arrested on Sept. 19, 1938, after he had started construction of a commercial garage building on South Indian avenue. He was charged with violating the city building code.

Fined $101

On November 29, 1938, he was found guilty by a jury in the local city court and was fined $101 by Judge Albert R. Hoffman.

Since that day in November, 1938, Holubar has been in court several times in attempts to have the verdict reversed. He appealed to the Riverside Superior Court last spring, and that court dismissed his appeal. Later he went before the District Court of Appeals at San Diego, which held that the Riverside County Superior Court must hear the appeal. The appeal was argued in Riverside.

Local Indians To Hold Fiesta Sat. and Sun.

The Agua Caliente band of Indians will present a gala Indian Fiesta on the local reservation Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday, Nov. 11-12, with a Mexican dinner Sunday noon and Indian dances highlights of the affair.

The fiesta will start at noon Saturday. The Warner Hot Springs Indians will be here to dance. Speeches will be made during the two days by Adam Castillo, president of the Mission Indian Federation; Purl Willis, chief counselor for the Mission Indian Federation; and by others.

All activities will be held at the council house, located on East Tahquitz Drive east of the Indian Catholic church on the reservation.

Feature of the two-day affair, of course, will be the Mexican dinner Sunday noon, followed by a program of Indian dances. Adam Castillo will speak at 2:00 p. m., Sunday.

The general public is invited to attend. There will be a small charge for the Mexican dinner.

Express Company To Distribute Village Literature

Claude Harmon, district manager of the American Express Company for the Los Angeles area, was in Palm Springs last week and made arrangements with the Chamber of Commerce to distribute 8000 pieces of Palm Springs literature free of charge to the village.

The express company has a select mailing list of persons who frequently go to Florida, Bermuda, California, or other resort areas of that nature. These 8000 pieces of Palm Springs literature will be sent out to this select mailing list.

Next Tuesday, Nov. 14, the voters of Palm Springs, Banning, Cathedral City, Edom and Cabazon will go to the polls to vote on the proposition "Shall a new high school district be formed from territory within the Banning Union High School District of Riverside County." This is considered by local civic leaders to be one of the most important elections ever to face Palm Springs.

Las Rancheritas Survive Rain; Back Tomorrow

Proving positively that desert cowgirls "can take it," Las Rancheritas, who are now on their four-day ride over the same route followed recently by los Vaqueros del Desierto, were not rained out by the storm that hit this area Wednesday, the first day of their ride. The ladies are still trekking and will arrive back in the village tomorrow, Saturday.

Top Rancherita Mary Gargan and some 30 odd Rancheritas left from Rogers Stables at 10 a. m., Wednesday, Nov. 8, and thundered up the trail to Smoke Tree Ranch, where they arrived at noon for lunch.

The gay time at Smoke Tree included a buffet luncheon, music by three cowboy entertainers from Rogers Stables and much picture taking. The girls enjoyed many a spill trying to ride the mechanical hobby horses at the ranch. Among the males on deck to see the ladies off from Smoke Tree were "Bill Gargan,"

200 Public Officials To Come to Palm Springs For Huge Barbecue

Over 200 public servants of Riverside county—members of the sheriff's office, city and county officials, police officers, superior court judges, justices of the peace, constables, city and state traffic officers, game wardens, forest rangers, etc.—will come to Palm Springs on Thursday, Dec. 7, for a gala meeting of the Riverside County Peace Officers Association to be held here.

Hold Outside

Weather permitting, the gay affair will be staged out-of-doors at Rogers Stables and will center around an old-fashioned Southern barbecue to be held in the evening. The peace officers meet down here once each year, meeting in seasons past at The Desert Inn.

It was thought that since Palm Springs is a famous winter resort it would be logical to stage the affair outside under the stars, as most of the monthly meetings are held indoors at other Riverside county towns.

Boyd in Charge

The peace officers meeting to be held here on Dec. 7 will be in charge of a general committee consisting of Mayor Philip Boyd, honorary chairman; Chief of Police W. H. Bispham, vice-chairman; and Rufus J. Chapman, secretary.

Other committees for the affair here are as follows: Barbecue and invitation committee—Alvah Hicks, chairman; Judge Albert R. Hoffman, Merrill Crockett and Rufus Chapman. Finance committee—Merrill Crockett, chairman; Alvah Hicks, Mayor Boyd and Frank Pershing. Range committee—Chief of Police Bispham, chairman; and all Palm Springs police officers. Program committee—Frank Pershing, chairman; Mayor Boyd, Constable Templeton and Rufus Chapman.

Pistol Shoot

The Peace Officers Association affair here will start with a pistol shoot in the afternoon. Chief Bispham said this week that he hopes that he and his officers will be able to get their proposed new police range ready for use in time for this shoot.

The main event will be the barbecue at Rogers Stables in the evening. This will be of the old-fashioned Southern type, the beef being roasted on a spit over the coals. The business meeting and program will be held during and immediately following the meal.

Association members will be accompanied by their ladies to the affair.

SPORTS

Nightball

By "Jimmy the Barber"
(James Glendye)

"You're Out!" bellowed the umpire last Friday night as "Rudy," playing center-field for the Builders Supply, struck out with the bases loaded to end one of the finest games played this season.

This game, which the Coachella All Stars won by the score of 3-2, speaks for itself. Smart baseball and all around good play were the factors in deciding this well played contest.

Other Games Last Week
Tuesday night's regular scheduled league game was forfeited by the Rinkydinks to the Builders Supply.

Thursday's game was won by the Gardeners over DeVine's Market. In winning this one, which was the last game of the summer and fall nightball schedule, they tied the Builders Supply for the league lead, both teams winning six games and losing two. A play-off between these two teams seems the logical answer to determine the league "champs."

New Fall League
I am told that the new schedule is now in the making, and that a new, more colorful and interesting League will be the result.

With new sponsored teams being added and a display of dazzling uniforms for each team, one waits with anticipation for the new league to get under way—"Nightball" is positively here to stay.

Big Game Sunday
This coming Sunday, Nov. 12, will see all roads leading to the Field Club, where the much-publicized game between the local Builders Supply team and the finest aggregation of girl softball

Bowling Them Over In Palm Springs

NEWS OF THE PALM SPRINGS
BOWLING ACADEMY
By HARVEY BARDO

Classic League Results
Wednesday of last week we journeyed to Pomona all set to take ourselves home some money. All was going nicely; got a very strong finish to win the first game, lost the second, and in the third were out in front by about one hundred pins, when our opponents started to throw lots of strikes. I guess it blinded our boys; and when this avalanche of strikes cleared up, we had lost the last game. We took it on the chin for three points.

Harv Bardo was high man of the evening with a 652 total, followed by McCutchen with 605. So back we go again this week to see if we can't do better. We will let you know later what the results were.

Sunday Mixed Doubles
Last Sunday we had a very nice turn out, over fifty bowlers were on hand, both men and ladies. Some very good scores were rolled.

But, darned if Bill and Roberta Seaton didn't cop the first money again, taking home a new pair of pants for Bill, so he says.

Second money in the second shift was split between Art Ramstad and Bill Seaton, so guess Bill had a pretty good evening.

Third shift was won by Jerry Sanborn and Tomlinson.

So for next Sunday night there will be doubles for the men only, using their regular league handicap. Would like to see a full players in California will be held. This team, sponsored by Marshall-Clampett of Los Angeles, is composed of the greatest array of feminine athletes ever assembled.

Having seen the girls in many games, also having umpired for these Amazons, I can truthfully say that you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Don't be misinformed, these girls can really play ball. And if you are thinking of making a wager, you had better wait until game time, as I know you might change your mind about wagering against these gals.

Come on out folks! Field Club is the place—Sunday the day—and the time is about 2 p. m.

Hotel Del Tahquitz Goes on the Air

Villagers of Palm Springs were taken by surprise recently when turning their dials to the various radio stations of Southern California, they heard an interesting dissertation on the health-giving qualities of Palm Springs, its sunshine and its many other attractive features.

This program, which commenced a month ago, will continue for an indefinite period of time and is sponsored by the Hotel del Tahquitz. Among the stations with whom contracts have been signed are: KMTR, XEMO, KIEV, and the "Station of the Stars," KMPC.

After the 15th of this month programs sponsored by Hotel del Tahquitz, emphasizing the beauty and climate of Palm Springs, will be heard over various stations on the Pacific coast, from Seattle to Mexico.

Naturally, the many features offered by the Hotel del Tahquitz and the exclusive new recreation ranch now owned by Tom and Billie Lipps at Two Bunch Palms will also be publicized.

Special match games tonight, Friday, Banning against the Palm Springs Sporting Goods team; and a grudge match between the Plaza Pharmacy and the Royal Palms team. Believe me, boys, we should have some fun out of this one. Come on out and shout for your favorites.

Men's League
As usual, Tuesday was a "mad-house," with each team out there to win. There is about as much noise on league nights as a three-ring circus.

Following are the results:
DeVine's Market and the Fire Department split with two points each. Fuller's Cafe and Plaza Market split with two points each. Sporting Goods took three points to Indio Town team's one. Plaza Pharmacy took three points away from the Royal Palms Hotel. Valley Laundry took three from Chapman-Haas Insurance. High team game was won by Plaza Pharmacy with 963; high average, Tomlinson, 598; and high single, Bob Frohm, 211.

Ladies' League
Yes, sir, men! I was right. The girls were out Monday night in the new outfits I told you about last week, and very snappy they were.

Ladies' Results
Indian Store took four points from Manuel The Tailor team. Desert Grill took three points from Desert Garden Date Shop. Thrifty 5 and 10 took four points from Village Toggery.

Thrifty has the season's record so far by rolling a very nice high game of 805 and high series of 2303. This is fine bowling for a ladies team and also gives you readers an idea of what goes on here Monday night, so come out and cheer for the girls.

Coming Attractions
Monday afternoon we expect to start a hotel league composed of hotel help only. Be you a chef, bartender, bell hop, musician, manager, or what have you, as long as you are connected with that field, come out Monday afternoon.

So all of you be on hand Monday afternoon about 1:30.

High School Notes
These youngsters were out in force again on Monday. High school beat the junior high by 82 pins, but each week it gets harder and harder. First thing you know it will be the other way around.

Firemen Called To Extinguish Scorched Chicken

Some "meanie" had the nerve to turn in a fire alarm at 10:30 Monday night while the members of the Palm Springs Volunteer Fire Department were holding a meeting.

The firemen rushed to Brock's Waffle Shop on Palm Canyon Drive and found the interior of the eating establishment filled with smoke. They had to break in the rear door to get in.

Investigation revealed that the operators of Brock's closed that evening without shutting off the fire under a chicken on the stove. "The chicken was so badly scorched we couldn't eat it," Fire Chief Bill Leonosio sighed as he gave this reporter the information concerning the fire.

The fire horn was not sounded because all the firemen were already on deck for the meeting.

JERRY'S COCKTAIL LOUNGE OPENS TODAY

Jerry's Broiler and Cocktail Lounge, located at the junction of Palm Canyon Drive and Indian avenue, will open for the season today, Friday, under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson.

Jerry occupies the building where Jo-Al's was formerly located.

200 Expected Here In January for Legion Meeting

Approximately 200 American Legionnaires and Legion Auxiliary ladies will come to Palm Springs in January when the Palm Springs American Legion Post 519 is host on January 21 to a Legion 21st district meeting, it was announced yesterday by Commander C. V. Knupp of the village group.

The 21st district comprises all the American Legion posts and their ladies' auxiliary groups in Riverside and Orange counties. Several prominent Legionnaires of Southern California will probably come here for the affair.

The meeting here will last all day. The tentative plans call for a barbecue among other things.

PRETTY REDHEAD ENTERTAINING AT ALGIERS

A talented young artist now entertaining at the popular Algiers Cocktail Lounge in El Morocco Hotel is the charming, red-headed Doris Padgett of Hollywood.

Miss Padgett plays the piano and sings her own compositions in her own very individual style. She commenced her engagement Thursday night and is entertaining nightly.

Local Gardener Pays $25 Fine For Drunkenness

Arrested Monday by Officer Max Balenger and lodged in the Palm Springs jail, Vaquero Flores, 31, was fined $25 on a drunk charge Wednesday morning when he was brought before Judge Albert R. Hoffman.

Flores, a local gardener, was forced to remain in jail over Tuesday because court was not in session election day. His employer paid his fine, and he was released Wednesday morning.

Child Pedestrian Collides With Moving Car

In what was listed by local police as an unavoidable accident, little four-and-one-half-year-old Raymond Cordona of Palm Springs narrowly escaped serious injury Tuesday afternoon when he ran into the side of a moving automobile on Ramon Road. The car was driven by William Hoffman, 36, guest at a famous local hotel.

Little Raymond was strolling with his mother, Mrs. Frank Cordona, along Ramon Road at 2:45 Tuesday afternoon. His mother had crossed to the opposite side of the street, and the child started to follow her just as Mr. Hoffman was approaching in his car. The child ran right into the side of the car, which, according to reports, was traveling about 30 miles per hour. The boy was slightly scratched about the face, on his left arm and right knee.

According to an eye witness of the accident, Mr. Hoffman blew his horn as he approached the pedestrians. When the child started to cross the street, he swerved to the left to avoid hitting him; but Raymond ran right into the right side of the moving car.

According to reports, Mr. Hoffman stopped his car to ascertain the extent of the boy's injuries and then drove to the police station to report the accident. The child was later taken to Dr. Russell M. Gray for examination.

The accident was investigated by Officer Max Balenger. No complaint was issued against Mr. Hoffman, and local police listed it as an unavoidable accident.

"REX" COLES DOWN TO LOOK OVER PROPERTY

Mr. and Mrs. "Rex" Cole of Hollywood, he a business manager for various actors, were down last week-end to look over their acreage near Cathedral City.

175 Truck Loads Of Rubbish Hauled To Dump by City

In the most thorough cleaning that the village has ever had, 185 truck loads of bottles, cans and other rubbish were hauled away to the city dump during the month of October while the big city clean-up campaign was in progress.

Garbage Collector Harry N. Williams hauled away approximately 175 loads of rubbish, in addition to his regular garbage service; and the newly-purchased city truck has hauled away 10 or 12 truck loads to the dump.

And there is still some cleaning to be done, Mayor Boyd revealed this week. The city truck will continue to haul away rubbish for awhile yet, he stated. All of this clean-up work on the part of the city was done outside of the reservation; and according to reports, there is need for a general clean-up on the reservation also.

During the gala city clean-up campaign, tin cans, bottles, yard rakes and other rubbish were hauled away free of charge by the city. It was stipulated, however, that such refuse must be placed in suitable containers at the edge of the street and was not to include garbage, which the city makes a charge for hauling away.

"A Message To Garcia"

Morris Richardson, principal of Palm Springs high school, yesterday asked this reporter to publicly thank, through the columns of The Desert Sun, localite C. R. Garcia, for his recent useful gift to the school.

Garcia, a well known landscape gardener of the village, manufactures a square concrete block which he uses in constructing walks. It seems that he was engaged recently by the high school to put in lawns. In addition to putting in the lawns, for which purpose he was hired, Garcia also donated a walk of his red concrete blocks leading from the street to the front porch of the school house.

When asked by Principal Richardson why he had put in the walk in addition to the lawns, Garcia stated he did it because he likes the high school students of the village; and besides, he explained, the boys and girls would have had to walk all the way around the lawn if a walk hadn't been put in across it.

Norman Powell Substituting for Francis Pitts

Palm Springs is not without the services of a competent motorcycle traffic officer while Officer Francis Pitts is at home recuperating from his recent accident.

Norman R. Powell, regular member of the local police force, is riding about the village on Pitts' motorcycle watching traffic. Powell is a former traffic officer so is right at home substituting for Pitts.

Officer Pitts suffered slight internal injuries in his accident of Monday, Oct. 30, on Palm Canyon Drive. He will be back on the job early next week, it is reported, but probably will not be able to ride his motorcycle for several days.

Planning Commission Still Working on Gas Tank Problem

At the regular monthly meeting of the planning commission for November held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the council chambers at 480 North Palm Canyon Drive, Horace Pender was appointed to serve on the "gas tank committee" of that body.

At luncheon Thursday the "gas tank committee," Horace Pender, John Porter Clark and Philip Boyd, met with officials of the Southern California Gas Company to discuss a plan for concealing the much-discussed gas holder north of the village. Also meeting with the planning commissioners and gas company officials were Raymond Cree and Alvah Hicks, members of the "gas tank committee" of the old chamber of commerce.

The gas company men were Harry L. Mosser, executive vice-president of the company; and Banks, another vice-president.

It is reported that the gas company will spend up to $12,000 to hide the gas tank.

During the planning commission meeting Tuesday afternoon it was voted to write a letter of appreciation to John Sprague for his service to the commission last season. Mr. Sprague served as an assistant secretary of the planning commission last year and served that body well in that capacity.

Public Welcome
Mayor Boyd stated this week that the public is invited and welcome to attend any of the planning commission meetings. The regular monthly meeting of the commission, he said, is held at 4 p. m., on the first Tuesday of each month in the council chambers at 480 North Palm Canyon Drive.

VILLAGE GETS .13 INCHES OF RAIN

The beautiful, unusual fall display of desert verbenas was saved, at least for the time being, by a rain storm that brought .13 of an inch of rain to Palm Springs Wednesday, raising the season's total to 3.75 inches, a record for this early in the fall.

Rain began falling here at noon Wednesday, following a report in the morning Los Angeles metropolitan daily newspapers forecasting fair weather for Southern California that day.

The desert verbenas have been suffering badly the past two weeks from lack of rain, and it was feared here that they might not be able to survive the dry spell. However, the rain this week practically assured that Palm Springs will have a beautiful display of verbenas for Christmas, a phenomenon truly unique in the annals of the history of the village.

Lights Go Out
A little after 5:00 p. m., Wednesday, the power went off and Palm Springs was without lights for 40 minutes. Power service was interrupted simultaneously all along the line from San Bernardino to the Imperial Valley as a result of damage caused by the storm. The power came back on much sooner in Palm Springs and Banning than in the towns of the Coachella Valley. This was made possible by the two power plants of the San Geronio Power Company, located in the mountains above Banning, which furnished power to Palm Springs and Banning while the Nevada-California Electric company's main line in this area was dead.

LANDS IN COURT FOR DRIVING THROUGH PEDESTRIAN ZONE

Arrested last Sunday, Nov. 5, on Ramon Road near the Ramon Trailer Park by local police and booked on charges of reckless driving, driving without a driver's license in his possession, resisting an officer and assault, James Arterbridge, 20, Palm Springs colored youth, pleaded "not guilty" and demanded a trial by jury when he appeared before Judge Albert R. Hoffman, Monday.

According to police, Arterbridge drove through a pedestrian zone at the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Andreas Road in front of the Village Pharmacy while pedestrians were crossing, almost hitting a lady. He was driving a Chevrolet coupe and assertedly kept traveling south on Palm Canyon Drive at a good rate of speed, passing all cars on the street.

When Arterbridge was arrested near Ramon Trailer Park, he reportedly became very angry and abusive, refusing to answer questions pertaining to traffic regulations. According to police records he resisted arrest by Officer Joe Omlin.

He was released Sunday on $300 bail.

Trial has been set for Wednesday, November 22.

SOUTHLAND QUAKE TUESDAY MORNING FELT IN VILLAGE

Reverberations of an earthquake that centered in the San Bernardino area were felt here in Palm Springs at 10:50 a. m., Tuesday. The quake was rather sharp but short here.

The quake was also felt at Los Angeles. Windows in the downtown section of San Bernardino rattled. However, no damage was reported.

Seismographs at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena recorded the center of the quake as being approximately 60 miles from Pasadena.

"YOUR PLACE IN THE SUN WHILE IN PALM SPRINGS"

Oriental War Discussed at Woman's Club

By MARGARET CREE

Vivid word pictures of the destructive war in China climaxed the unusually interesting talk given Monday afternoon by Delyn Hornaday, war correspondent and lecturer, who spoke on the subject "Across China's Far Horizon" at the meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's Club. Japanese soldiers are sex mad and fight mad, he said, telling of massacres against civilian populations and other atrocities which he witnessed.

German Influence

The influence of Germany and Italy in Japan were described by the speaker, who said that munitions workers in that country wear buttons upon which are shown the flags of Italy and Japan, with the swastika of Germany. Germans in Japan are sold merchandise in the shops at half price quoted to the general public, Mr. Hornaday said, telling of an experience in that line which he had.

At Osaka there is a five-mile strip devoted to munitions factories. Japan, Italy and Germany have established barter relations, using Japan's considerable credit in the United States to provide all three countries with necessary money.

Use U. S. Materials

Declaring that he had absolute proof of his statements, Mr. Hornaday claimed that materials being sent to the Orient from the United States, such as scrap iron, powder and airplanes, sent ostensibly for toy manufacture or transport use, can, and are being used for war materials by Japan.

In describing an interview he obtained with Chiang Kai-Shek and his wife, Mr. Hornaday declared that when the individual members of a certain group were unable to collect $25,000,000 which was due to the United States to repay a loan, a broadcast was sent out and Chinese of all stations came voluntarily to have teeth which were filled with gold extracted, in order to secure sufficient gold. The needed money was raised and paid before due.

Lauds Chinese

The Chinese are people of high integrity and honor, he said, and thoroughly enjoy their close-knit family life. They see no need for hurry and bustle and are content to live as their fathers lived before them.

Mr. Hornaday spoke of the close cooperation between Japan, Germany and Italy, saying that simultaneously with moves against England and France by either Germany or Italy, Japan has made threats and taken action against the same country in the Orient.

"Dance of the Warrior Maiden" was depicted by Bo-Ching, talented Chinese dancer, and Chinese melodies were played on the marimba by Mr. Hornaday. The speaker displayed many beautiful garments, explaining the meaning of embroideries and colors. He also showed several intricate carvings, one of the most beautiful having been made by an 11-year-old boy. For this type of carving no knife is used, friction being the only abrasive.

Mr. Hornaday closed his dramatic talk with a plea for peace. "We must all learn to live by the Golden Rule," he declared.

Rudy Vallee Entertains at Racquet Club

The party at the Racquet Club last Saturday night with its usual spontaneity, topped all others for talent. The crowd seemed to literally be composed of artists eager to entertain each other. Judy Starr, with her 87 pounds of dynamic personality, led the show and was followed by her old boss, Rudy Vallee, who outdid himself with old favorites and several just off the press. Accompanying him on the piano was Elliott Daniels.

Following Rudy in admittedly a tough spot for any crooner was Lee Bowman, who need not take a back seat to any professional. Two more songs from Judy brought Charlie Butterworth to the front with his old stand-by, "The Wreck of No. 5." Ralph Bellamy joined in the chorus with a loud, if not perfect, duet.

Eddie Goulding came next and nearly stole the show with imitations of Chaliapin singing, "Yes, We Have No Bananas," and a Russian folk song — both surprisingly well done. Barrie O'Shea, new dance instructor at the club, with his charming partner, Louise Brooks, did a very clever mask dance, imitating Mrs. Roosevelt and Chamberlain, doing an old time square dance. Others in the program were Swede Neilson of Rogers Stables, playing spoons and Jim Donaldson singing.

In the audience were such social luminaries as the Jack Hearsts, the Dan Chandlers, Bob Nevens, Wendy Inglehart, Margaret Stimpson, Fran Mygatt, Mrs. Dahl-Wolfe. With the Irving Snyders were Commander and Mrs. Seligman. With Rudy Vallee was petite Janice Bibb, Elliott Daniels, Judy Starr and Mr. and Mrs. George Zacon. The Charles Bowles of Chicago entertained a party of fourteen, including the Dan Bowles, the George Dalzels, Henry Lawsons and Helen Lindsay. With the Ralph Bellamys were the Maurice Stoloffs, John Trotter, the Edwin Earls, George Allen, Eddie Goulding, Lee Bowman and Helen Del Valle.

100 Attend Lions Club Dance

Forty-seven couples, members of the Palm Springs Lions Club, their ladies and guests, gathered at El Mirador Hotel Tuesday night for the Lions third annual opening season ball.

The election night party was a gay affair. "Bob" and "Dixie Lee" Goodridge entertained, each rendering a number of vocal solos.

The snappy dance music was furnished by the Dunes Club Orchestra, which donated its services for the Lions Club affair. George Oliver, chairman of the committee in charge of the dance, stated Wednesday that he wished to thank, through the columns of this paper, the Dunes Orchestra for its fine cooperation in helping make the ball a success.

Prizes were won by Howard Speck of Riverside, guest of Jerry Sanborn; Lloyd Simon, who won the prize that he himself had donated for the party; and Mrs. John Connell.

Credit for the great success of the opening season ball is due the Lions committee in charge of the affair: George Oliver, chairman; Al Weingarten, Morris Richardson and Jerry Sanborn, who served as master of ceremonies.

Mack, Jr. Johnny Boyle, outdoor host of the Desert Inn, entertained the party with his guitar and cowboy songs.

Over 100 Enlist In Village Tennis Tourney

With well over 100 individuals entered, the first "Village of Palm Springs Amateur Tennis Tournament" got under way today, Friday, with the preliminary matches of the "boys and girls" division, 15 years and under, starting at 9:00 this morning.

The Village Tennis Tournament is being sponsored as an annual event by the city board of recreation and will be in progress all next week, extending through Saturday, Nov. 18. The event will culminate in a big tournament dance to be held on the night of Saturday, Nov. 18, in the auditorium of the Frances S. Stevens school. Awards will be made at this dance.

Three Divisions

The tournament is divided into three divisions with subdivisions for both sexes in each. The three divisions are as follows: boys and girls, children under 15 years of age; junior division, boys and girls between the ages of 15 and 18; and the senior tournament, men and women over 18. About eighty have entered the two younger divisions; and in the senior tournament 64 men and 28 women have sent in their entries.

The "boys and girls" got under way with their matches today, the juniors get started tomorrow morning, Saturday, and the preliminaries of the senior tournament will commence Tuesday morning.

High School Courts

The "boys and girls" and the juniors will play all their matches on the city board of recreation courts at the high school. Seniors can play their first-round matches on any courts in Palm Springs that the two contestants may agree upon—at the Tennis Club, Racquet Club or any of the hotel courts. All players will be phoned as to when, where and who they are to play.

The semi-finals will be held Friday, Nov. 17, and the finals Saturday, Nov. 18. These matches will all be staged on the high school courts. The hours when the semi-finals and finals are to be held will be posted at the Palm Springs Sporting Goods.

Grandstand seats will be available for semi-final and final matches. During the finals on Saturday some exhibition matches will be played by some well known professionals, to add to the entertaining afternoon.

Local Judges

Local professionals — Johnny Lamb, Betty Nuthall, Mae Sutton Bundy, Bob Nourie and Harry Plymire—will be judges.

Among the favored players in the men's senior division are Paul Lukas, Harold Hicks, Freeman Gosden, Ralph Bellamy, Edwin Earl, Allan Thompson, Bill Marvin, and Orville Schriber. Among the leading women contenders are Ruth Stoefer, Helen Woodward, Milly Guthrie, Caroline Hicks, Marion Fulford, Mrs. Edwin Earl, Mary Helen Thompson and Janice Bibb.

Closed Tournament

The tournament is limited to persons who have resided in Palm Springs for at least one year.

Another qualification of entrance is that the player has not been a consistent tournament winner. People with cups and trophies on their mantle pieces must watch from the side lines. It is a closed tournament, strictly for amateurs.

Awards Donated

Trophies and other awards for the tournament are now on display at the Palm Springs Sporting Goods. The gold trophy for the women's singles event was donated by Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman. The trophy has an ivory base and is topped with a figure of a female tennis player. It is a perpetual trophy and must be won three times by the same person before it may be kept.

Mayor Philip Boyd donated the men's singles trophy. It is similar to the above with the exception that it is topped by the figure of a man tennis player. This is also a three-year perpetual trophy.

Frank Pershing donated the medals for the boys and girls under 15 years of age, and Harry Williams and Charles Burket each donated a cup for this division. Trophies were purchased by the city board of recreation for the junior winners. Trophies and medals are now on display at the Palm Springs Sporting Goods.

Pershing Works Hard

A great deal of credit is due Frank Pershing, chairman of the committee in charge of the tournament, for the fine work he has done in arranging the details of this first annual village tournament. He was assisted by Betty Nuthall, Tony Burke, Johnny Lamb, Mayor Philip Boyd, Morris Richardson, Joe Henderson and Bill Marvin. Much credit is due all these men for their fine work.

Persons wishing information of any kind concerning the village tournament should phone or call at the Palm Springs Sporting Goods Store on Palm Canyon Drive in the bowling academy building.

The tournament dance will get under way at 9:00 p. m., Saturday, Nov. 18, in the grammar school auditorium.

Week-end guests at the George Houseman home were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Walzer of San Marino.

Arriving Tuesday to spend the winter here are Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Twitchell of Tujunga.

J. T. Asbury Dies Following Collapse On Vaqueros Ride

His great love for horseback riding was listed as a contributing factor in the death at Glendale last week of Jess T. Asbury, 54, wealthy ranch owner and head of the Asbury Transportation Company.

While riding with the Vaqueros del Desierto on their recent trek, Mr. Asbury was stricken with pneumonia which resulted in his death. He was stricken about 5:30 a. m. on the last morning of the ride with what was thought at the time to be a minor stroke. Before an hour had passed there was a recurrence and he suffered an attack of great severity.

An ambulance was summoned to take him to a hospital in Los Angeles. Accompanying him was Hal Kelly, who was associated with him in business in Los Angeles. He died Thursday, Nov. 2.

Over the microphone at the Field Club Sunday noon, Nov. 29, at lunch, Johnnie Pyle, another top Vaquero, paid tribute to Mr. Asbury's sportsmanship and expressed the regret the entire group felt in his sudden collapse. He resided at 1322 Rossmoyne avenue, Glendale.

100 Attend First Regular M.I.A. Meeting

The newly - organized Palm Springs chapter of the Mutual Improvement Association held its first regular weekly meeting Wednesday night in the auditorium at the Frances S. Stevens school with over 100 persons on deck for the affair.

The meeting was opened at 8 o'clock by President Bert Faulk. The program included speeches by Wendell Noble and May Beth Farr, both of Los Angeles, district supervisors of the California mission of the M. I. A.

A group from the San Bernardino chapter presented a short program, which included a vocal solo, reading, and a short skit. A gay community sing was also enjoyed.

Following the meeting the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. The Plaza Cafe Orchestra donated its services free of charge for the dance.

The next meeting of the Mutual Improvement Association will be held next Wednesday night, Nov. 15, at the grammar school.

All Palm Springs Voters Must Vote Again

After years of effort on the part of Palm Springs people we succeeded in securing an enabling act in the last legislature which permits the proposed division of the high school district. Never before was this possible under any prevailing law. But it is subject to the vote of the entire Union High School district.

Banning is a community well qualified to run its own high school business, having run theirs and ours for many years. It does not need, nor is it entitled to our help in facing our future high school problems.

Palm Springs is able to run its high school business without the help of Banning and wants to be free to manage its own affairs.

We cannot have the necessary educational facilities at our own Palm Springs High School unless we vote to divide the district.

Be Sure to Vote YES on Tuesday

Shall a new high school district be formed from territory within the Banning Union High School District of Riverside County?	YES	X them. All the girls have been active in big league competition throughout Southern California, and according to their coach they form the "All American" girls' softball team.

Odds on Men Fall

Although the local "lumberjacks" recently tied for top honors in the Palm Springs Nightball League and are considered a group of capable ball players, still some villagers are reluctant to back them when it comes to laying any money on the line. The girls' chances were boosted still higher this week when it was found that several of the Builders Supply star players would not be in the line-up this Sunday afternoon.

Footballers Too

The Marshall-Clampett DeSotos have been winning new fame the past few weeks as one of the finest girl football teams ever recognized. Playing the same slam-bang game seen in contests on the university gridirons, these Amazons have vanquished two strong contenders to the national "powder-puff" gridiron title—defeating the Hollywood Allstars, 12-6, and the strong Pasadena Kinky Dinks, 40-0.

It was reported yesterday that the Amazons may put on a short football exhibition at the Field Club Sunday for the benefit of the spectators. This is not definite, however.

Benefit Game

The big game between the "Amazons" and "Milt" Hicks' "Lumberjacks" is being sponsored by the Palm Springs City Board of Recreation. The proceeds of the game will be used to buy more bleachers and lights for the local nightball field at the Field Club.

General admission is 40 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Thiele have returned from Monte Rio to open their winter home here on Valmonte del Sur.

Los Rancheritos

Charley Ruggles and Bob Ransom.

The trek of the Rancheritas is the same followed by the Va-queros a few weeks ago and combines wonderful scenery, comfortable riding conditions and camping sites. The ride is to be four days only, because the ladies have to be back tomorrow, Saturday night. Accompanying are a crew of wranglers, cooks and dishwashers so that it won't be just another excursion in housekeeping for the ladies. There are trucks and station wagons for the saddle weary in case of need.

The Rancheritas left Palm Springs and rode over the trails to their first night's rainy camping place at the mouth of Palm Canyon. Yesterday they were on their way to Pinon Flat, at the edge of the mountain pine country.

Only males on the Rancheritas ride are Guide Trav Rogers and a few cowboys to look after the horses.

Members of the Rancheritas group include among others the following: Inez Mae Haines, Maiziebel Markham, Jenny Lawson, Alma Morgan, Jane Manchester, Mrs. Travis Rogers, Mar-

ners, Janice Bibo, Marie Pearson,
Mrs. Ernest Fleming, Teresa
Soles, Carol Stevens, Mary Gar-gan, Etta Foster, Mrs. Jack Haley,
Lucille Ball and Priscilla Chaf-

Grand finale to the trek will be a lunch at the Field Club tomorrow noon when the rugged gals return to Palm Springs.

IN THE NAME OF FAIR PLAY VOTE "YES" TUESDAY AT HIGH SCHOOL ELECTION

We believe that Palm Springs should have the right to govern the operation of its own high schools; and therefore, we recommend that the voters of Palm Springs and Cathedral City go to the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 14, and vote "YES" on the question "Shall a new high school district be formed from territory within the Banning Union High School District of Riverside County."

Banning's problems and Palms Springs' problems are entirely different. It seems unfair to both, that these two communities 25 miles apart must be harnessed together. Palm Springs doesn't wish to tell Banning how to operate its schools, and by the same token would like the affairs of the Palm Springs high school put entirely in the hands of five Palm Springs trustees.

The election next week is one of the most important in the history of Palm Springs. If the division of the district is voted down at this time, it may never be possible to hold another election on the subject.

Palm Springs has desired to withdraw from the Banning Union High School District and to form its own district for many years. Not until Senator John Phillips' bill was passed by the State Legislature this year, however, was it possible for an election to be held on the subject. This act provides that an election can be held "provided, that no such separation of school districts shall leave the remaining part of the district from which the separation is being made with less than twenty-five percent of the assessed valuation of the entire district." At the rate Palm Springs and Cathedral City are growing, it may be that even within one year from now this area may possess more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the entire district. It would not then be possible to hold an election.

It was very difficult to get the present enabling act through the State Legislature, and it is quite possible that the Legislature would not pass another. This act was passed expressly to make the division of the Banning Union High School District possible.

It will be necessary for every voter of this area to go to the polls Tuesday and vote "YES" if Palm Springs is to have its own high school district. It will also be necessary for Palm Springs to "pick up" a number of "YES" votes in Banning.

At the special election last week Banning and Cabazon together cast 1612 ballots. Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Garnet and Edom all together only cast 1351 votes. It has been learned here that a very heavy vote is expected at Banning and Cabazon so it is estimated that Palm Springs and Cathedral City together will have to cast well in excess of 1000 "YES" votes if the division is to be effected. SO GO TO THE POLLS TUESDAY AND VOTE "YES" FOR THE SPLIT OF THE HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Village Officials Attend Peace Officers Meet

A number of local public officials motored to West Riverside last night, Thursday, to attend a monthly meeting of the Riverside County Peace Officers Association held in the school house at that town.

Attending from Palm Springs were the following: Alvah Hicks, Merrill Crockett, Judge Albert R. Hoffman, Chief of Police W. H.

BARKS..

By H. Barkow

—The fact that greater traffic safety is imperative in Palm Springs was forcefully demonstrated this week when little 4-year-old Raymond Cordona ran into a traveling automobile on Ramon Road Tuesday afternoon. Fortunately, he was only slightly injured; but the affair served to emphasize the fact that we drivers can't be too careful. Chief of Police Bispham stated recently that his department is going to strictly enforce all traffic regulations this season, especially regulations relative to speeding and driving through school zones, pedestrian stops and boulevard stops.

—We can't understand why a certain group of well-meaning individuals are seeking to stop the local nightball games at the Field Club. We believe that this group should consider the facts before starting to circulate their contemplated petition to have the nightball games stopped. Nightball is a clean, healthful form of recreation that takes people out in the open air. It furnishes pleasure for a large number of spectators and affords the players a chance to get much needed exercise.

—We wish to hand a bouquet to Coach John Kluckman of Palm Springs high school who in only two years has whipped his small squad of less than 20 players into a pretty good football aggregation. Incidentally, Kluckman is not hired as a coach, but he gives unselfishly of his time every afternoon to coach the local boys and then must work late at night to correct his students papers, etc. He is the English teacher at the high school.

—The ladies of the Palm Springs Woman's Club have made great progress since the club was organized last season. When they hold their next regular meeting, Monday, Nov. 20, it will be in their own fine new club house on Baristo Road, a real asset to the community. May we congratulate them on this achievement.

—While class hatred, persecution and intolerance are rampant in other parts of the world, Palm Springs is a haven of tolerance. Just the other day we overheard a prominent localite state that never in his life has he seen a town where less religious friction existed and where peoples of different religious beliefs got along so well together. Congratulations Palm Springs, and let's continue to have tolerance for the views of others, whether they be political, religious, social or otherwise.

—The display of desert verbenas is still beautiful. May we again suggest that residents water those in their own yards and adjoining lots in order to prolong this display.

—One of Palm Springs most unselfish welfare workers is Mrs. Ted Griffiths, who on Nov. 16 will launch the local Red Cross roll call drive. Mrs. Griffiths has been in charge of the local Red Cross for many years and has done a fine piece of work. She deserves the complete cooperation of every villager. She has appointed Horace Pendery as "roll call" chairman for this season.

—Palm Springs citizens wholeheartedly did their civic duty Tuesday of this week when 1155 of the village's 1663 registered voters went to the polls and cast their ballots. If the village does as well next Tuesday, Nov. 14, when we vote on the question of whether or not Palm Springs shall withdraw from the Banning Union High School District, we will probably be successful in gaining control of the administration of the affairs of our own high school. However, this is one of the most important elections ever to face this area, and it is imperative that every registered voter of Palm Springs and Cathedral City go to the polls next Tuesday and vote YES for the split of the high school district. PALM SPRINGS SHOULD HAVE THE PRIVILEGE OF GOVERNING ITS OWN SCHOOLS.

A great amount of credit is due the ladies of the Palm Springs Woman's Club for getting out this largest vote in the history of Palm Springs. Their "Committee Against 30 Thursday" waged a fine campaign against the pension plan and sent it down to stunning defeat here.

Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt of Pasadena was a recent house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Menke here in Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Barton have opened their home on Prescott Drive after spending the summer in San Diego.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR BETTE SMITH

Mrs. William Seddon of North Hollywood, entertained recently with a shower complimenting Miss Bette Jeanne Smith of Palm Springs, pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Smith of Van Nuys and December bride-elect of Earl Lykken of the village.

Gifts were arranged beneath a white cellophane umbrella showered with tiny white wedding bells.

Guests were Mrs. Ralph B. Smith, Mrs. Norman Dole and Mrs. Lawrence M. Smith of Van Nuys; Mrs. Esther D. Spencer, Mrs. Kent Tagge and Mrs. Frank Eugene Wright of Hollywood; Mrs. F. G. Shaver of Glendale; Mrs. Jerry Shill and Mrs. Carl Lykken of Palm Springs; Miss Alice Marie Gautschi, Miss Madeleine McCollum of Van Nuys and Miss Ellen Hart of Walnut Park.

487 PEOPLE VISIT OFFICER PITTS AS HE RECOVERS

Bringing him cigarettes, magazines, flowers, etc., over 400 people have visited Traffic Officer Francis Pitts since he was injured in a traffic accident last week.

The local officer yesterday asked this paper to thank his many friends for the interest they have shown in his condition. He is recovering at home.

JIMMY VAN HOOSER IN HOSPITAL AT INDO

Jimmy Van Hooser, ex - Palm Springs high school boy and an employe at the Village Sandwich Shop, was rushed to an Indio hospital Monday, where he underwent an appendectomy.

Dr. Russell M. Gray of Palm Springs is the attending physician.

ANDREAS ROAD OILED AND GRADED

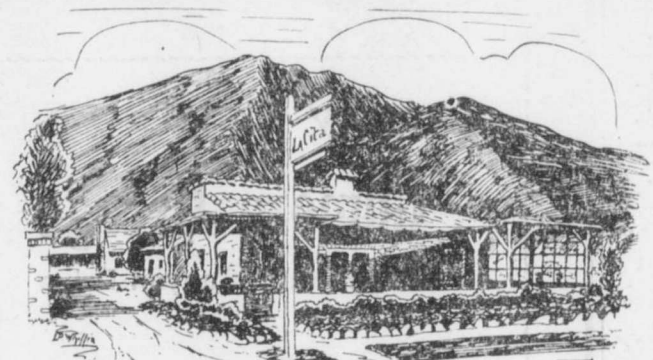

An additional 600 feet of Andreas Road east of Indian avenue has been improved with grading and an application of oil. This improves the street up to Taylor's trailer camp. Joe Richardson collected $150 from tenants along the road to make a 16-foot wide paving job possible.

The Desert Sun

Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

C. F. Weeber Passes

Cathedral City was shocked when the community learned that their beloved neighbor, Charles F. Weeber, after a very short illness, had passed away Saturday morning, November 4.

Mr. Weeber, who was a diabetic sufferer, although his jovial manner never indicated his plight, died in a local hospital and his body was taken to San Bernardino for cremation.

Charley, as everyone called him, came to the desert a few years ago with his wife from Laguna Beach, where they had resided for ten years. Before that time his long years in this state were devoted to hotel operation. No near relatives survive, other than the widow, Ida L. Weeber. Charley was a member of the local Chamber of Commerce and was always willing to help in community affairs, so his presence will be missed by every one in the community.

Wolseths Return

James and Mary Wolseth are back in Cathedral City after an extended stay on the coast. Their many friends will be glad to learn that they will reopen their Desert Lodge to the public on November 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolseth met in China, where they both spent many years; and after their marriage returned to California, where their parents reside.

The moving finger writes in Asia and has far more meaning to this young couple than to those of us who are interested but cannot fathom the Orient.

Mrs. Marian W. Keller, after a visit with her sister in El Paso, has reopened her houses on the Dunes Road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Laas came back to the village this past week and are at work about their dwelling on "A" street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Elsterman has improved her place with a large neon sign that radiates cheer about the premises.

100 Vote Here

Hurray! Cathedral City polled 100 votes! The third time at bat as a separate voting precinct, the number who came out and cast their ballot having increased each time, Cathedral City on November 7 cast 98 votes at the Town Hall and two mailed in their ballots. In addition to being good citizens you will find that an enthusiastic voting community "goes places"—and so as the list of those who had not voted (and could have done so) dwindled as the hour of closing drew near, you may be sure the election officials called each one by name and hoped they would get to the polls in time. Only two ballots were judged as contrary to the law and were not counted; but at least one judge felt that others should have been cast out. A close study of a sample ballot would leave no doubt in one's mind as to where to put the cross and how many.

Prominent Artist

The prominent Southern California artist, W. A. Griffith, accompanied by Mrs. Griffith and two friends, Mrs. Don L. Leyden and Mrs. Frank D. Hevener, all of Laguna Beach, have taken two cottages in the village for the week.

The showers Wednesday will prolong and make more profuse the beautiful display of wildflowers on the desert. What a joy it proves to be for the artist that can interpret what he sees on canvas, as well as to those who can only admire beauty but are mute in passing it on to others.

Cactus to Eat

A few days ago in conversation with Albert H. Mulvane, who recently settled in Cathedral City, the writer was asked if he had ever eaten prickly pear, or to use a more proper name "tuna" (cactus fruits). The experience that followed was delightful, as a number of just the right ripeness were sampled.

The Desert Magazine has carried a story about the "tuna" and the use the natives make of it, but the same origin that Mr. Mulvane furnished was very interesting and runs something like this.

The Opuntia cactus, that carries the finest fruits and that are cultivated for the fruit in Mexico, are called "nopal" from the Aztec word nopalli.

About 1325 the Aztecs, who had fought the original people in what is now central Mexico, finally came to the great lake in the valley where they saw an eagle perched on a nopal that grew from a rock on the shore, and in its beak it held a writhing serpent from heaven, and they began the erection of their capital on the shore of the lake. Their city they called Tenochtitlan—the place of the tuna. And its successor in name is Mexico City. Still more interesting is the fact that the eagle and serpent were found in the Aztec hieroglyphs that represented the ancient Montezumas capital, and are now the emblem of the Mexican coat of arms and flag.

Just what species of nopal the eagle was perched on we do not know; but we do know that the Franciscan fathers brought two of the best fruit bearing varieties to Southern California for the missions, and they have now spread and are as much at home as if they were natives.

CATHEDRAL CITY WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The first regular business meeting of the club was held on Wednesday afternoon in Casa Reposita, the home of Mrs. E. H. Mickie, president, with the officers and board members as hostesses, presiding over the colorful tea table during the social hour. Delightful refreshments were served and several members related stories of their vacation trips.

Mrs. Edna Cobb gave a vivid picture of her trip to Detroit and travels into Canada and through some of the northwestern states.

During the business meeting, the club program for the ensuing season was brought before the assembly; and various chairmen and committees were appointed by the president, as follows: Publicity chairman, Miss Lydia Engh.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Lennie Linkletter, with the committee consisting of Mrs. Agnes Gould, Juanita Temis and Alpha May Larsson.

Entertainment chairman, Mrs. Edna Laas.

The new and amusing social feature, in the form of "Gallop-ing Breakfasts" was adopted with much enthusiasm. A Thanksgiving dinner party was planned for the club members, families and friends, to be held in Totem Pole Cafe at 2 p. m., Nov. 23. Mrs. Gyda Wheeler, chairman of the dinner committee, with Edna Cobb, Lennie Linkletter, Alpha May Larsson and Juanita Temis, assisting.

For reservations, see any member of the committee.

The first celebration will be held at Indio at 10 a. m., under the sponsorship of the Coachella Valley Post. Another service will be held at Coachella at 12 noon with the Thermal post in charge. There will be flag raising ceremonies and a parade, with the Palm Springs men participating in all the activities.

Local Legionnaires will wear their Legion caps and shirts to Indio Saturday and will take their colors along.

BALBOA BEAUTY SHOP OPERATOR TO MOVE HERE

LIONS HEAR NOTED EDUCATOR

Judged afterward by Lions to have been their best meeting so far this season, members of the Palm Springs Lions Club gathered at The Desert Inn Thursday noon for the regular weekly luncheon meeting of that organization and heard Dr. W. O. Mendenhall, president of Whittier College, deliver a scholarly address on democracy.

The Lions enjoyed a fine, well-rounded program. The "one and only" Axel V. "Andy" Anderson, the club's pianist for the last two seasons played a piano solo, Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor." Pretty little 85-pound Judy Starr, "radio's sassy sweetheart of song," sang two numbers. She was formerly with Rudy Vallee's orchestra and starting tomorrow will entertain nightly at the Royal Palms Hotel. Jimmy Cooper and Roy Colgate gave five-minute autobiographies.

Boyd Talks

Mayor Philip Boyd also gave a short talk, stressing how important it is for all voters of Palm Springs to go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 14, and cast their ballots in favor of the division of the Banning Union High School District.

Morris Richardson was chairman of the day and introduced Dr. Mendenhall. Mr. Richardson is a graduate of Whittier College and has known Dr. Mendenhall for many years.

Discusses Democracy

The speaker discussed Premier Benito Mussolini's rise to power in Italy, and how he brought order and regularity out of the chaos of disorganized post-war Italy. Mussolini's whole theory has been, according to Dr. Mendenhall, that no people will discipline themselves.

With this theory to work on, Mussolini began work by thoroughly disciplining his handful of followers. He explained how in due time Mussolini marched to Rome with his 30,000 disciplined Blackshirts and installed himself as Premier.

Stresses Discipline

According to the speaker, when Mussolini is asked how about America, whose citizens apparently discipline themselves, he states that the United States has passed its zenith. Mussolini claims that Americans laugh at their own laws and constitution, and that to build a lasting great nation the government must discipline the people, as the people won't discipline themselves.

The speaker challenged that perhaps the people of the United States can't discipline themselves. He pointed out our apparent disregard for traffic regulations, and how American children learn to laugh at breaking speed laws, etc. He pointed out how criminal lawyers make a mockery of justice by defending successfully known lawless individuals. Dr. Mendenhall criticized the gangster pictures, which teach young Americans to admire powerful gangsters.

The speaker stated that when axation gets beyond the willingness to pay, something is bound to happen.

Challenges U. S.

In closing Dr. Mendenhall challenged that we can't build a democracy on the citizenry of this country if the individuals have not enough self control. "If we won't discipline ourselves, a man will come along who will discipline us," he said.

The United States was built by men who could control and discipline themselves, such as the so-called "narrow minded" Puritans and Quakers. These "narrow minded" people, the speaker pointed out, were men with convictions upon which they were willing to stand—and, self disciplined as they were, they built a great nation.

Asks Lions to Vote

In the interest of fair plan and in order that Palm Springs may govern its own high school, stating that the interests of Banning and Palm Springs are entirely different, Mayor Boyd urged the Lions to go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 14, and vote "yes" for the division of the high school district.

The knocker on a door rightfully used may admit one to the hospitality of a home, but the breed of mortals pegged as "knockers" doom themselves by their activities to remain without the pale of human friendship, kindness, and good cheer.

"Faith as I travel on through life and mortal actions scan: I find 'neath Heaven no nobler thing than an honest, working man."

Palm Springs to...

question of whether a new high school district shall be formed."

Reason for Incorporation

The matter of having its own high school district was one of the chief issues which caused Palm Springs to incorporate.

Two years ago available P.W.A. funds made it possible for Palm Springs to have its own high school when the district voted a $110,000 bond issue, to which was added $121,000 from P.W.A. Superintendent Gunnerson later obtained $24,300 additional from the P.W.A.

Out of this fund, Banning received a $170,000 high school and Palm Springs an $80,000 building. Thus Banning received more than the total bond issue, and Palm Springs about $30,000 less. The Palm Springs site, costing $8,000, was purchased out of funds on hand and later part of the property was sold to the Palm Springs elementary school district for a junior high school.

Divide July 1

The division would become effective at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1940, although within a short time after the election each district would have to elect its own high school trustees. The two high schools, however, would continue to function under the set-up now in effect until next July.

The Palm Springs - Cathedral City area, which desires to withdraw from the Banning Union High School District, has an assessed valuation of $8,182,300 and pays 69.27 per cent of the total taxes of the district which is used to retire the bonded indebtedness and to help maintain the two schools. The Banning-Cabazon-Whitewater area, which would remain in the Banning district, has an assessed valuation of $3,631,080 and pays 30.73 per cent of the taxes. Thus the Palm Springs district now pays more than double the amount that Banning pays. If the split is effected, this condition would continue to prevail until the present total indebtedness is paid, for the enabling act provides specifically that each of the separated district shall continue to be liable for its proportion of the outstanding bonded indebtedness until it is paid, based on the assessed valuation at the time bonds become due.

Must Pay Bonds

Section 2.650 of the school laws, which the new act added to Chapter IX, Part I, Division II, by Chapter 769, Statutes 1939, states:

"The territory within a new high school district formed under the provisions of this article shall continue to be liable for the same proportion of the then outstanding bonded indebtedness of the high school district from which the new high school district was formed as it would have been liable for had such new high school district not been formed."

The present assessed valuation of the entire district is $11,813,380, and the 1939-40 high school tax rate is 62 cents per $100 valuation, which will net the district $73,243. Added to this it is estimated the district will receive $36,260 from the state, based on approximately $90 per pupil for average daily attendance. The total budget is $88,700 for the two schools.

Banning Gets Most Money

Based on last year's records, Banning receives approximately 60 per cent of this amount to maintain its school and Palm Springs receives 40 per cent.

A group of Palm Springs leaders motored to Banning Wednesday morning to have breakfast at Hotel Banning, and they asked four Banning men to sit with them to discuss the problem.

The group at the meeting included President Raymond Cree of the high school board, Mayor Philip Boyd, Hobart Garlick, A. F. Hicks, John Chaffey, Carl Barkow, Frank L. Miller, Guy Woodworth and Harold J. Kuhn.

The Palm Springs men stated that there has been a clamor in Palm Springs for a number of years for the village to have its own district and high school, because the demands of the Palm Springs people are not the same as those in Banning, and the problems of the two schools are not the same.

The Banning men asked if the revenue in the Banning district would be sufficient to maintain the local high school at the present high standard and efficiency. The Palm Springs men thought it would, showing the records that the assessed valuation of the Beaumont district is about a million and a quarter dollars less than the proposed new Banning district, and that it would also be very much higher than the assessed valuations of the Perris, San Jacinto or Palo Verde Valley school districts.

Time Ripe

When the point was brought up that it might be better to defer the matter of separation for a year, the Palm Springs men stated

Vote "Yes" Tuesday

To separate Palm Springs and Cathedral City from the Banning Union High School District in order that this desert area can govern the affairs of its own school, The Desert Sun recommends that the voters of Palm Springs and Cathedral City vote "YES" as indicated on the sample ballot below, at the election next Tuesday, Nov. 14. Voting place is at the Frances S. Stevens school. The polls will be open from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Beauty and Body Salon Opens in El Paseo Building

Mrs. Mildred L. Masters, one of the best known beauty experts of Southern California, this week opened her ultra-modern El Paseo Beauty and Body Salon in the El Paseo Building.

Mrs. Masters has devoted 26 years to the study of beauty culture. She has spent 19 years in California, operating five beauty colleges, graduating nearly 6,000 beauty operators who are working in every state in the union and in many foreign countries. She at one time was president of the Chicago College of Beauty, Inc., a Long Beach school of cosmetology.

She has opened many shops for her graduates. She has had as many as 52 shops going in California at one time from Fresno to San Diego. Four years ago she opened at Long Beach the Masters Bath and Massage Clinic at 330 Pine avenue.

For two years Mrs. Masters served as national president of the All American Beauty Culture Schools Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Masters have made Palm Springs their winter home for several years and this year decided to become active in business after two years of retirement. The El Paseo Beauty and Body Salon is in charge of Miss Betty Durrum, formerly a shop owner of San Pedro.

Miss Durrum is an unusual hair stylist, also specializing in hair cutting, hair twisting, etc. Miss Leonore Padilla, also former owner of her shop, is an outstanding hair stylist, manicurist and permanent wave expert now on duty at the El Paseo salon. Mrs. Masters had two other operators ready to come into the shop Dec. 1—each a specialist in a particular type of beauty culture.

The body salon will be in charge of Miss Vera Collette. Miss Collette has had years of experience, both in beauty and body massage, having served on the State Board of Cosmetology in Idaho.

The body department at the El Paseo Beauty and Body Salon will be one of the most completely equipped in California. The body department will include a Danish exercise room, steam cabinets using infra-red heat and steam and massage tables.

The body salon is all in white with all white equipment. There is also one of the new all-steel white sanitary showers.

The beauty salon is completely furnished with off-white leather and chrome equipment in the most modern styles. Acme dryers, which are fast and noiseless, have been installed.

All types of permanent waves will be given as different hair requires different treatment. Mrs. Masters has a license in both cosmetology and body massage and will assist in all departments.

ed that at the present rapid increase in assessed valuation of Palm Springs, it might be impossible to separate a year from now; because it is possible that the assessed valuation of the Palm Springs area will be more than 75 per cent over the Banning area by then. The state law does not permit one part of the district to withdraw if the remaining part is less than 25 per cent of the total valuation.

The Banning men then wanted to know if it would not be possible to include more area in the Banning district, and the answer was that it would be desirable to do this if possible, but that the new Banning district as now proposed in the proposed set-up goes to within seven miles of Palm Springs, and includes Garnet, Whitewater and the Palm Springs Railway Station, and that any further area to the east up to Palm Springs city limits is river wash and has little value.

Senior Scouting Group Organized in Village

A troop of "Senior Explorers," scouting program for older boys, sponsored by Boy Scouts of America, was organized in Palm Springs this week with 27 high school boys turning out for the first meeting at the grammar school Tuesday night.

This senior scouting group is for boys of high school age and features hobby work—radio, model airplane building, etc. In charge of the troop are Morris Richardson, chairman of the sponsoring committee; Coach John Kluckman and Clyde Hedrick.

Allan Hall Tuesday night was elected president of the Senior Explorers. Ralph Gilmore was elected program chairman. Another meeting will be held Tuesday night of next week, 7:30, in the grammar school auditorium.

There are only two other Senior Explorer troops in Riverside county.

WAR VETERAN LANDS IN P. S. JAIL ON VAGRANCY CHARGE

Once upon a time they had patented him on the back, people cheered him, bands played for him and his companions—as he marched to serve his country on the field of battle; but at a very early hour Monday morning when he was found by a Palm Springs police officer, Harry Brawley, 52, from the soldiers home at Sawtelle, was sleeping on the ground at the side of the Sportsman's Headquarters Rifle Range with but thirty cents in his pockets.

Brawley was picked up at 3:45 a. m., Monday morning by Officer Jacobsen, who said that he heard someone coughing under a canvas at the side of the rifle range building. Under investigation he found Brawley sleeping under the canvas.

Brawley was boked on a vagrancy charge and lodged for the balance of the night in the local jail. He told police that he had a job at Smoke Tree Ranch, but investigation proved this to be false.

When Brawley was brought before Judge Hoffman on Monday morning he was sentenced to serve 30 days in the Riverside county jail, and the sentence was suspended on his application for permission to leave and remain outside of Riverside county.

Brawley said that he had come to Palm Springs because he had been told that he could find work here.

ment for payment, thus resulting in an entry of dismissal on the docket of the Court, thereby also removing a cloud on credit standing, and avoiding a levy on property or earnings by way of execution or other processes and remedies which may issue out of the Court.

I am heartened in the knowledge that this method of procedure has been notably successful, and I have a deep sense of satisfaction that the working of the facilities of the Court does not necessarily result in enmity and bitterness.

On the criminal side of the Court there is little activity. Palm Springs is known as a law-abiding community, with a respect for law and orderly procedure, and a decent submission to duly constituted authority. It well deserves that reputation. The Court is firm in the few instances where the violation does harm or injury to private property or interferes with the public good. In other situations the penalty is imposed with due consideration and

Palm Springs Men Killed in Auto Accident

Two men were killed and five others injured, one critically, in three automobile accidents in the Indio area during last week-end. All three accidents were caused by cars leaving the road and overturning.

The dead:
Emile J. Rieux, 40, Palm Springs.
Numa G. Gauff, 41, Palm Springs.

Injured:
Albert Heiser, 23, Palm Springs; possibly fatally hurt.
Jesus Aguinaga, Cucamonga, concussion and severe scalp wounds.

Ellsworth Bernard, 43, 206 Sixth street, Stockton, severe lacerations and bruises.

Thomas Banbury, 63, 103 N. Catalina street, Pasadena, fractured right leg, severe bruises.

Malcolm Ferns, no address, severe abrasions on arms.

Rieux and Gauff of Palm Springs were passengers in a car driven by Albert Heiser, which went off the Palm Springs-Indio highway five miles west of Indio at 1:30 Sunday morning, turning over five times. The two men were killed instantly and the driver injured so badly that it was feared he might not recover. Heiser was taken to the Coachella Valley hospital. All three were colored men.

Albert Heiser is a star player on the Builders Supply nightball team.

Auto Burns

Bernard, Banbury and Ferns were driving north toward Rice on a road recently turned over to the county by the Metropolitan Water district. Their machine left the highway and struck the sand, turning over several times and catching fire. The men were all thrown clear, however, and were not burned. The accident occurred early last Saturday evening, and the men were all taken to the county hospital Sunday morning, following emergency treatment in Indio.

In the third accident, at 12:30 Sunday afternoon, the car driven by Jesus Aguinaga, turned over on highway 99, nearly 15 miles east of Indio, when the brakes suddenly locked on one wheel. With the driver, who was uninjured, were Mary Vasquez of Chino and Raymond Hernandez, aged two years. Aguinaga is in a hospital at Indio.

All three accidents were investigated by members of the California Highway patrol. Capt. J. Raymond King and Deputy Coroner Seymer Cash went to Indio early Sunday morning to check with investigating officers.

erside on Oct. 10, and the Superior Court, after considering the facts handed down a verdict last Friday, Nov. 3, affirming the decision of the local city court handed down on Nov. 29, 1938.

Technicalities

It is stated that the Palm Springs Building Code was introduced to the city council on May 16, 1938, and that it was pending and being discussed by the council between that time and when it was adopted on June 8, 1938. Holubar, it is said, rushed to get his building started on June 6, two days before the ordinance became effective. It was held that he should not be excused from obeying the ordinance just because he started construction two days before it went into effect. Amendments had delayed the final passage of the ordinance.

City Attorney Roy Colegate stated this week, "Although this case resulted in much work for us, the decision handed down in Riverside last Friday was thoroughly deserved by the city." "There has never been much doubt in our minds as to the final outcome," he concluded.

Holubar will now have to pay his fine to the city.

Rural teacher: "Tommy, who signed the Magna Charta?" Tommy (with a whimper): "Please, ma'am, 'twasn't me."

Teacher (disgustedly): "Oh, take your seat!"

Visiting trustee: "Miss Jones, call that boy back. I don't like his attitude and I believe he did do it."

sympathy with all the attendant circumstances.

We are not operating the Court for revenue purposes. Deterrent is more important than punishment, sentences of fines and imprisonment are handed down in the hope that others will refrain from the acts complained of; and the spirit of cooperation along these lines has been spontaneous and complete.

We are proud of the City Court of Palm Springs. We hope, in due course of time, to make all of you equally proud.

News From Smoke Tree Ranch

Each year the good news seems to spread farther afield that these early season weeks at Palm Springs are unbeatable. And isn't it the truth?

Sunning at Smoke Tree Ranch during the past few days have been the E. W. Bedfords of Omaha. In a champagne celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary they hosted a group which included former Omahans the George K. Thompsons and Dean Glovers, now of Salt Lake City and Los Angeles.

Mrs. D. W. Figgis of South Orange, New Jersey, is making her annual visit to Smoke Tree and will be joined Saturday by Mr. Figgis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Perkes of Piedmont are getting in lots of tennis and riding and acquiring a sun-tan receipt to prove it. To loosen up for a morning ride the G. H. Bunyards of La Jolla tried out those innocent-looking hobby horses at the ranch house, but soon voiced their preference for a flesh and blood bronc. The John Fenns of Chicago and a Pasadena group including the George Davsons, William Hansens, and William Kecks feel the same way about it. Major and Mrs. Frier-son of March Field held out for safety belts.

A good majority of the colonists have now returned. Recent arrivals are Mrs. C. A. Hayward and her daughter, Mrs. Janet Jones; the John Gills, Alvin Skiles, the Dr. Frank Sawyers and Mrs. Jameh Parker, who was accompanied from Carmel by Mrs. Ida Knight. Mrs. Frances Cook is due in a few days.

NORTH DAKOTA AVIATRIX NOW VISITING HERE

Prominent woman flyer Mrs. F. M. Roberts, Jr., of Bismarck, North Dakota, arrived here recently to visit for a few days with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Sheptenko of Palm Springs.

Mrs. Roberts is one of the very few woman flyers in North Dakota. She flies for a hobby and is known as "The Flying Housewife." She was accompanied to Palm Springs by her young son, Freddie.

MARRIAGE OF INTEREST HERE

The marriage of Frances Pringle Bledsoe and Samuel Hole Rindge at San Mateo, recently, was of interest to many Palm Springs people, for the young groom is the son of Mrs. Samuel K. Rindge, who has been occupying the Rindge estate in the village this fall, and who left to attend the wedding.

Mr. Rindge is the grandson of the late Willet Hole, who purchased the William E. Reis estate near the Tennis Club. The hacienda was one of the first large homes to be built in Palm Springs.
